Dedication

We, the seniors of Midway High School, take great pride and honor in dedicating this, our 1973 edition of "The Eagle" to our parents. Their love and understanding and sacrifices we have known for the past eighteen years will continue to guide us in the future.

GROWING

Growing up means reaching, searching.
Growing up means hurt and sorrow.
Growing close means leaning, teaching.
Growing confused means "Who brings tomorrow?"

To grow means to stretch beyond yourself.
To grow is to topple down from your shelf.
Stretching your hand out and finding no one.
Trying to hide with no place to run.

It hurts you inside more than words can paint.
It swells in your head till you feel you could faint.
You've got no choice - to grow up out and near,
is the ultimate ending, the ultimate fear.

Superintendent's Message

ARTHUR M. HEDGES, JR.

Have a high purpose. Set your goals high.
But remember we are all different.

If you can't be a pine on the top of the hill
Be a shrub in the valley but be
The best little shrub by the side of the hill;
Be a bush if you can't be a tree.

If you can't be a bush be a bit of grass
And some highway happier make;
If you can't be a muskie then just be a bass,
But the liveliest bass in the lake.

We can't all be captains, we've got to be crew,
There is something for all of us. There
Is big work to do and there's lesser to do
And the task we must do is the near.

If you can't be a highway then just be a trail;
If you can't be the sun be a star;
It isn't by size that you win or fail.
Be the best of whatever you are.

Remember this poem by Douglas Malloch and you will all reach your goal. Good luck and may success shine on whatever you feel success to be.

Time is but the stream I go a-fishing in. I drink at it; but while I drink I see the sandy bottom and detect how shallow it is. Its thin current slides away, but eternity remains.

Class Prophecy

John Paul Myers, Jr., formerly of Bendena, Ks., now resides in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, having bought our Joseph S. and family. He is now owner, general manager, chairman of the board, and chief taste tester of one of the better known beverage companies of "Milwaukee and the world."

Karen Elder is currently living south of Severance on a farm where she is raising her own set of wigglers. She is also training girls for future Miss America contests. If and when she has free time, she spends it trying to perfect the wiggleless cartwheel.

Father Damian Gronniger is the new priest at the St. Paul Catholic Church in Denton. He delivers his message of good will toward all men daily. He has also been known to raid beer joints and smash the bottles of evil firewater.

Mark Burke is still seen rodding around Highland in "OLE BLUE," but now only to visit relatives. After graduation, Mark published his book, "How to Succeed with Weights." In his spare time, he is busily raising his 11 youngsters, who are now training for the 1984 Olympics. He hopes they will dominate the weightlifting department while he breaks the shot put record with a throw of 80 feet or better.

Pam Albers is now known world-wide because of her portrait, which is hailed as a modern-day Mona Lisa. No one knows for sure what Pam is thinking behind that frozen smile. She has used her prominence to get a job as the White House chef, owing to her Home Ec. experience.

The Reverend Thomas L. Davis, M. D., D. D. S., Ph. D., and B. U. D., has become a man of the cloak after realizing his sinful ways, and now serves the Thomas Chapel of Denton, where he is also mayor. He is also a part-time second hour locker room instructor at M. H. S., where in his spare time he has devised such mechanisms as the padded town pump seat and Amtrak train to Robinson and Troy.

After attempting to become a secretary, Sharon Burdette was discovered by one of her employer's clients. This client brought a new life to Sharon. Because of her beautiful brown eyes and ravishing long hair, she was flown to Hollywood to appear on television commercials advertising such cosmetics as Natural Wonder and Johnson's Baby Shampoo. Hopefully, the Severance community will get a visit one of these days from its once shy and meek little girl.

Betty Jones, who is married and living with Robert Miner in New York, has become National President of the Women's Liberation Movement while her husband raises 11 tadpoles at home.

David G. Halling, Midway's dashing and debonair socialite and man about town, has been voted playboy of the month for the 23rd consecutive month. When and if he makes number 25, which he is expected to do, Hugh Hefner has promised to will him the entire Playboy empire. Good luck, Dave.

After successfully making her way through high school, Janet Marie Pauly did equally as well through Gard Business School. She is presently employed by Dr. Freeman as his personal secretary. Everyday activities at the doctor's office include such things as being chased around the desk, musical chairs, and hide-and-seek. Janet admits that her life is very exciting and she has no intentions of being tied down with marriage.

Quinten Kentzler has won The Nobel Mathematics prize for a mathematics equation. He has calculated the total amount of molecules which cover a 440 yard track.

Dean Dickson, better known as "Jackson," is now competing on the world market for the sale of hand raised, nutritionally fed, suburban born, wild coyotes. His ability to lose money is also known world wide.

Patty Barrand is now 45 years old. She has realized the fallacy of the Women's Liberation Movement and has become a happily married mother of 27. In her spare time, she runs an all-boy school located south of Denton and is dedicated to the proposition that "All Men are created superior."

After being the personal secretary to the President for three years, Debbie Pease married 6 foot 11 inch Bill Walton. With 10 children, all seven feet tall, she is now the Mother of the Year.

William Albert "Al" Fuhrman, Jr., is now head of the UFO tracking center in Denton. Every night he patrols the highways looking for silent helicopters, people from Mars, and flying pizzas. He is hoping for a chance to communicate with some small green men.

Mary Edna "Crip" Bottiger is now attending Highland Juco, arriving ten minutes late every morning. She has also been busily collecting football players to liven up her life.

Robert Miner, who is now living in Denton, Kansas, has opened his own establishment which he calls "Betty's Place." Business is progressing and he says he owes it all to his dear little housewife, Betty.

Carol Johnson, formerly known as "Heifer" owns a packing plant and slaughter house three miles south of Highland. Her business is really booming due to the fact that she has learned of a new and better method to kill the cattle, although it doesn't help the looks of the car any.

Susan Albers, commonly known as "Sambo," has successfully conquered two tasks and is working on a third! She was the author of a million-seller book titled, "How To Not Understand a Dirty Joke - But Still Laugh." She has invented an economy bug which she peddles to distribute her book, and she is nursing the future winner of the Bimbo look-alike contest.

Gary George, after four years of sports at M. H. S. , has become the smallest catcher in the major league. He learned a lot from playing on many "slow pitch" softball teams during the summer. His most prized possession is his face mask.

Jim Akright, formerly of Midway, is now one of the largest dog breeders in the state of Kansas. He has started a new breed of dogs, the Boodle, a cross between the Bulldog and the Poodle.

Yvonne Ptomey is one of the lucky ones who has stepped up greatly in her line of work. Instead of managing M. H. S. 's girls basketball team, she is managing the Kansas City Bombers. In her spare time, she and her friend Heifer, in joint ownership, run the Heifer Bull Steak House.

Marcus Shawn Severin, the drummer for Deep Purple, has opened a recording studio in Denton and is recording for such well-known bands as the Sunset Field Band and Westbanque Bridge. Mark plans to open another studio in Bern.

After ten years of serving the WACS, the former Bev Sturm, and her spouse are dedicating their lives to writing of her infamous jokes in Green Acres newspaper. In the future, Bev hopes to write a book entitled How To Enjoy Your Big Prom Date.

Marietta Winchester has just retired from a three year reign as Miss G. M. She enjoyed her work, but said upon her retirement that she intends to raise at least three fleet-footed wide receivers.

Debby Boos has bought into a large soap firm so she always has a large supply of soap for nights after Halloween. She is also writing a book entitled "101 Ways to Foul Up A Physics Lab."

Morris Thompson was known for seven years as the United States ping-pong champion. Recently, he was forced into retirement due to the mysterious disappearance of his ping pong table. Today, Morris is in search of this prized possession.

Nancy Dodge, after graduation, used her great mind and her limited resources and quickly became president and leading stockholder in Dow Chemical Corporation; but finding this life too boring, bought the little motel down the street and is still looking for the right man in her life.

A terrible fate has come to Mary Jo Weingart! After fruitless attempts by doctors, this modern day Clara Barton is now seen walking around with a brace around her neck to hold up her head due to an overflow of brains and hair.

Last Wills of Class of 1973

I, DEBORAH LYNNE BOOS, do will to Sharon Kirtley, my fantastic ability to understand French. I also will her my ability, which I share with four other seniors, to be quiet and reserved in fifth hour study hall so others will not be disturbed.

I, DEAN DICKSON, do hereby will David Myers a spare carburetor linkage, a new set of non-smoking brake linings, a tow bar, and a set of rubber baby buggy bumpers for his jeep. Last, but not least, more wild rides in his jeep.

I, MARIETTA WINCHESTER, will to Joan Marie Baker, my ability to kiss good so that Steve will enjoy the finer things in life. Also, a snow suit to wear and cotton for her ears should she decide to tour the General Motors plant next year.

And to my cousin, Zane, I will my ability to never get phone calls at school and to always be able to take off from school whenever I please.

I, MARK BURKE, do hereby will to Lawrence Rush, a fifth hour go-cart racer's permit, my great discus throwing and bench pressing ability and my ability to never get involved with girls.

I, NANCY JOYCE DODGE, being of sound mind and excellent body, do hereby will to Larry Elliott Rush, my great shop ability and also a safety belt for his soon-to-be invented automatic rocking chair for the band hour.

And to Joni Lynn Dittmore, my ability not to need a Mark Eden Course and also my ability to acquire a certain piece of jewelry during my senior year. Last, but not least, Pam Albers and my ability to chase parked cars.

I, DAVID HALLING, will to Roger Yoder, my great acting ability, to keep paint out of my hair. Along with these, I truthfully will my voice, so that he will get A's instead of - well, that need not be mentioned.

And to Ron Scholz, my most favorite sport and hobby, women.

I, BEVERLY STURM, being the most talented person of my kind, (which you will not find defined in the dictionary), do hereby will to my good friend, Kim Laverentz, something of mine that she has had her eye on for several years - MY BODY - to do with whatever she wished so long as she does not fold, spindle, or multilate it.

And to Ruth Davis, my unique ability to pick out unusual posters on the Kansas City trip.

I, MORRIS NEAL THOMPSON, do hereby will to Wayne Ruhnke, my outstanding abilities to take "good" pictures, stay out of trouble, and drive a "mean" Corvair, also a pile of new parts for his beat up old '58 Chevy.

I, PAMELA DENISE ALBERS, having a sound mind and unstable body, will Carla Lynn Drake, my faded, worn-out, very holy, red cheerleading tights that I have worn for the last four years, my ability to pull muscles right where they hurt, and last but not least, my "chipmunk act" which I have perfected from cheerleading camp.

And to Sharon Ann Kirtley, my ability to be ready for a date on time, my inability to think of presents for boys, my courageous soul, and my pressed roses which I deeply cherish.

I, JOHN PAUL MYERS, being absolutely great and fabulous, do now hereby will to Robert (Dob) Tharp, my fantastic ability to talk my way out of anything in the office, which will be of great help next year, John's box, which I have secretly stolen and hidden, and my straight long hair.

And to Larry Boos, I will my impressive mechanical ability to astound and fascinate John each and every day.

I, MARY JO WEINGART, being of sound mind, and not so sound body, do hereby will Joan Baker my amazing ability to grow long, straight hair. I also will her half of my intellectual prowess to add to her already amazing talent. She can also have any of my skiing ability she wants.

And to Ruth Davis, I will my ability to have all the teachers believe anything I say and also three more years of age so that she can make any purchases she desires.

I, JAMES A. AKRIGHT, being of rather inadequate mind and body, do hereby will to Ben McNett, my superior driving techniques, my fantastic Ford pickup, providing he doesn't leave the muddy streets of north Severance, and my new book entitled, How to Destroy a Transmission and Other Assorted Parts Without Really Trying Much. I also will him my superior ability to be loved by everyone and always to say the wrong thing at the wrong time in the wrong place with the wrong people listening.

I, SUSAN JANET ALBERS, being of scattered mind, and sound body, do hereby will to Wayne Prentiss Olson, my nerves of steel, essential to passengers in my Bug.

To Zane Winchester, my ability to thread a needle and to tie a knot.

And to John Stephen Wagoner, I will the arduous task of dust pan every single day in shop.

I, JANET MARIE PAULY, being of unstable mind and sound body, do hereby will to Joni Lynn Dittmore all my nights out - especially at church, my ability to lose four contacts and never find them, and last but not least, my once prized possession - the gold key of a certain door in hopes you will put it to good use in the future - your future may depend on it.

And to a well deserving Larry Rush, my ability to always stay out of trouble, my exasperating ability and knowledge of shop, and my locker number 18.

I, QUINTEN KENTZLER, will to Michael Zane Winchester, a reverse lay-up for pregame warm-ups, and a private catering service so he can eat restaurant food without leaving the school premises.

I, ROBERT MINER, do hereby will to Dave Winchester, my ability to play man-to-man defense in practice without fouling, and my ability to stay out of trouble.

I, CAROL DIANNE JOHNSON, being of plenty body, and not much mind, do hereby will to Miriam Kay Elder the following things, first, my cute little nickname "heifer" so she will never be confused when someone calls her name in a crowd. Secondly, I will her my ability to always say "no" to Ron Scholz.

And to Wayne Olson, I leave my ability to withstand the rides in Sam's V. W., and to always know which basket belongs to Midway.

I, THOMAS LaRONE DAVIS, do hereby, solemnly, and openly swear that upon the event of or when some act of misfortune should be bestowed at my disposal, that my last wishes be carried out. To Robert Tharp, if he need be steered clear of any situation which may blacken his name, I grant in his custody my detachable steering wheel. I'd like to remind him of a piece of advice he apparently has forgotten, that is, you shouldn't chase women, because it will make your hair curl. I also hope these next three years are as happy as the first.

I, YVONNE ANN PTOMEY, will to Debra Kaye Johnson my ability to hand sand in a dress, and also my position as a number one pest of Midway High School. Last, but not least, I will her my ability to get poison ivy the week of prom.

I, DAMIAN GRONNIGER, being a member of the unforgettable class of '73, do hereby will to thee, Robert "Bubba" Halling, my great ability to leave school early and also my fantastic ability to cut kitties. I also will to him my super kitty - cutting brown biscuit, complete with six banger, which he admires greatly.

I, SHARON BURDETTE, will to Vicki Zeit, my endless membership to the Benny Goodman fan club so she can enjoy the better qualities of clarinet playing. Also, I very gladly hand over my responsibility of meeting all dead lines for getting the programs out on time. GOOD LUCK!

I, DEBORAH KAY PEASE, of small mind and short person, do hereby will to Vicki Zeit, my small mind and short body, locker number 19, my shorthand speed and ability, and first hour study hall to goof off or sleep in. I also will her my ability to be able to get a job right out of high school, and all my green possessions so that she will be prepared for Thursdays.

I, WILLIAM A. FUHRMAN, JR, or Al if you prefer, consisting of greater wisdom and more mass than a potato peel, do hereby will Mike "the Kite" D. Peters, a key-chain, pop bottle cap, forty apricot seeds, and two rubber trees.

And because I consist of superior knowledge and German bloodline, I do hereby will one Wayne Prentiss Olson (uncommonly known as the "Flying Swede") one pint of German blood, the art of lighting a candle with the gas valve in the science room, a stopwatch for the two mile that stops at 9 min. 30 seconds, and all the prunes he can eat in a week.

I, GARY LEON GEORGE, being of small but superb body, do hereby will to Robert Hartman, my brilliant athletic skills, my ability to stay out of trouble and my unmistakable charm with the girls.

And to my dear, sweet, little brother Chuck, I leave absolutely nothing.

I, BETTY SUSAN JONES, hereby bequeath my ability to find the answers to Government questions before the teacher realizes I'm not paying attention, and my ability to stay calm during lightning storms in Highland to Kimberly Annette Laverentz.

I, MARY "CRIP" BOTTIGER, being of entirely too much body, do will Roger Yoder my Mac, so he can peel around Denton, a week's vacation in Horton, and my love of buckets, mustaches, and freezers.

And to Larry Turpin, my job at the Wathena swimming pool so he can be near his loved ones, and my collection of toothpick holders plus what he will not doubt need most of all - 7 turtle neck shirts of assorted colors for the week after prom.

I, PATRICIA KAY BARRAND, will to Ruth Davis my ability to become a cheerleader for the Senior-Faculty game and my unusual style of jumping and turning cartwheels. I also give to Ruth my beautiful six foot poster of Joe Namath. May she enjoy it always.

I, KAREN IRENE ELDER, being of mind and body do will to Ronald Lee Scholz my ability to leap low hurdles in a single bound, my wiggle to do with as he pleases, my sister, and my pleasant disposition: Hear that, Ron, you stupid peanut!!

I, MARCUS SHAWN SEVERIN, being of mental mind and physical body, do hereby will to Jeff Fuhrman, my fantastic voice so that he can sing in church, and most important, my claims in Bern.

And to Steven Wagoner, my ability to keep from getting hooked on one girl and my outstanding coolness and achievement of talking my teachers out of getting me in trouble.

We, the great and superior seniors of 1973 leave to the following:

Mrs. Winter - another fantastic and talented Speech Class that can go to State contests, and more unique fun-filled play practices along with a course on how to handle flying fire extinguishers.

Mr. Hedges - more three day passes.

Miss Hall - the school car and a dollar's worth of gas to go to Colorado on.

Mrs. Scott - a box of Arm & Hammer soda to keep the refrigerator fresh and odor free.

Mr. Leatherman - a set of sideburns so he won't feel out of place around the track boys.

Mrs. Olson - a lifetime guaranteed substitute teaching position, especially in the field of government with a lot of eager learners like the seniors of '73, and more chat-ty students in 6th hour.

Mrs. Pry - more independent seniors.

Mr. Stoebener - less talk and more work in 3rd hour shop.

Mrs. Elder - more band student so she'll have a full band room, and another student teacher for chorus.

Mrs. Rieth - more honest and energetic Bookkeeping students.

Mr. Myers - more broken radios and mixers for the Physics class, and another quiet, shy study hall like 5th hour.

Alice and Rosemary - an Easy Bake Oven and 288 (which is just two gross) of Suzy Homemakers' kits. Also a Pillsbury doughboy to squeeze during study halls and a life-time membership to the "Save the Raisin Foundation."

Norm - a case of big Wally to clean the walls, and a case of Lysol Tub and Tile Cleaner plus the French maid that goes with it.

John - his own personalized, gold plated, engraved spatula, and a centerfold in Popular Mechanics to display his handiwork. Also more industrious senior shop boys and a new box to replace the one John Paul borrowed.

Doris - more girls to help her in the office.

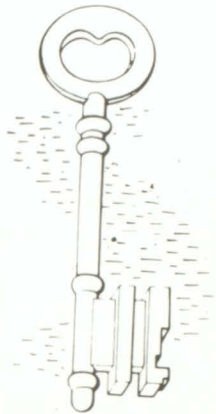

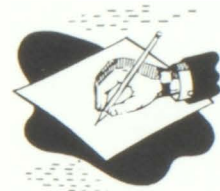

Farewell

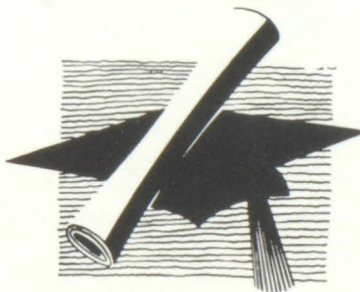

"THOSE WERE THE DAYS"

Endless days and fulfilled nights
Junior plays and silly fights
Football games that were so cold
Stupid claims "we'll never grow old"
Freshman jitters soon erased
Sophomore pride takes its place
Juniors feeling mighty and strong
Seniors wondering "where has time gone?"
Riding around for hours on end
Sharing good times with a friend
Letting homework go undone
Screaming that "We're number one!"
Trying to accept defeat
"Spirit Sticks" when all compete
Bumpy, busrides, always long
Deciding what is right and wrong
Concerts, contests come too fast
Wishing vacations could always last
Talking forever on the phone
Praying for snow so you can stay home
Downslips, grade cards, sometimes worrying
Never restless, always hurrying
Skipping out and getting caught
Forgetting half of what has been taught
Desire Day in the Spring
Juniors getting their class rings
Overtimes that we have won
Proms and parties, so much fun
Staying out way too late
Freshmen tell Seniors "I can't wait"
A Freshman's first "Initiation"
Followed too soon by his "Graduation":

A. T.

JUNIOR HIGH

Shall we not come as pilgrims to these sanctuaries?
limit, where need exists, our numbers,
that each may find a singing solitude and pass
free as a cloud's shadow?
